Disclosure Statement and Member Consent Clause

The Australian Property Institute (API) is committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information you provide to us. We need to collect the personal information requested on this form to enable us to process your membership and/or certification application and provide you with a range of membership services. If you do not provide us with the information in this form or any additional information we request, we may not be able to process your application or provide you with membership services.

We may disclose the personal information we collect on this form and any additional information that you provide to us in connection with this application to our relevant staff, contractors and Committee members involved in delivering our services.

When other members of the Institute of the public make enquiries, Institute staff may provide them your name, membership class, employment organisation and business telephone number.

API Divisional Offices will at any time provide access to you to verify the personal information we hold, and where necessary, correct any errors in this information (some restrictions and costs may apply).

By completing and returning this application form and/or providing us with any additional information in connection with your application, you agree to us using and disclosing your information as set out above. By providing your email address you consent to receiving electronic correspondence from the API.

This consent to the use and disclosure of your personal information remains valid unless you alter or revoke it by giving written notice to your Division.

Changes to Your Personal Information

In order for the Institute to provide you with membership services, we need your current contact information. If you change your name, postal address, employer, position, telephone, fax or email address at any time, you should advise your Divisional Office of these changes.

Further Information

The API's Corporate Privacy Policy is published on the API website at – www.api.org.au and Divisional website

Applicant's Declaration

I agree, if admitted as a student member (Affiliate membership) of the API, to be bound by the Constitution and By-laws including all Fundamental Rules, Code of Ethics, Rules of Conduct and Practice Standards and any other requirements that may be adopted by the Institute from time to time.

BENEFITS OF STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

The Australian Property Institute is the professional home of the nation's land valuers, plant and machinery valuers and land economists. It has been established for nearly 80 years and has a membership of over 7,000.

Graduates from the Curtin course have a number of opportunities to be involved with the Australian Property Institute. This Institute fosters their interests during their study, on graduation and when they become active participants in the property industry.

In the lead up to becoming a Graduate member, property course students may become Affiliates of the Institute. Student membership of the Australian Property Institute is available to all students undertaking the Bachelor of Commerce (Property) or any of the Property Double Majors.

Membership fees apply from 1 January to the 31 December of any given year.

Benefits of membership include:

- Professional Journals and Newsletter
- Discounted Professional Development course fees
- Networking opportunities with senior members of the profession
- Networking opportunities through the Young Property Professionals Group
- Professional Standards

The Western Australian Division of the Institute supports the Curtin University Property Students in a number of ways:

- Contributes $15,000 per annum towards the Property Department's Professorial Chair
- Sponsors two academic awards being the
 - PC Kerr (Memorial) Divisional Prize ($1,000 plus Graduate membership for one year) and the
 - Knight Frank Award ($500 plus student membership for one year).

The PC Kerr (Memorial) Divisional Prize is presented to the graduate with the best overall aggregate in a degree course of property study in the past year.

The Student of Merit Award is presented to the student with the highest score in the subject Income Property Analysis 102.

Footnotes:

1. The membership fee for the W A Division of the Australian Property Institute for full and part time students IS COMPLIMENTARY for as long as you remain a student.
2. Please provide proof of enrolment in the Curtin University Course for the current year with your application.
