Australia currently has 550 Native Title Claims pending. The outcomes of these claims will affect a broad range of property professionals .

It is important for all to understand the implications of this topic in their daily business activities.

The forum will cover the following aspects of Native Title

- What does the recently upheld claim really mean to the Noongar and wider communities of Perth and the South West?
- State Legislation including the Land Administration Act, Land Heritage Act and Native Title Act.
- The Australian Government role in Native Title legislation
- “The Value of Native Title” as it relates to the private sector, mining companies and pastoral leases

Speakers:

- Glen Kelly, CEO - South West Land and Sea Council (Noongar Community)
- Kate Morton, State Land Services, Manager Native Title Unit.
- Graeme Addicott, Principal Valuer — Australian Valuation Office, advisor to the Prime Minister on Native Title.
- Marshall McKenna, Native Title Consultant Solicitor
