Bellevue Ballroom, Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre

Please register early for an excellent opportunity to hear professional commentary and to catch up with colleagues and clients at this informative breakfast briefing.

Only table bookings will have reserved seating.

In uncertain times, find out from our expert panel what the outlooks are for the economy and financial markets and how these will affect Perth commercial property in coming years.

Bruce Pont, Chief Executive Officer, Logistics Property of the Linfox Property Group.

Since 1985 the Linfox Property Group portfolio has grown extensively with the acquisition and development of some of the largest industrial properties in the Southern Hemisphere. Linfox is the manager, developer and owner of millions of square metres of warehouse space throughout the world. Bruce is uniquely positioned to present expert information on this significant aspect of commercial property.

Colin Robinson, National Head
Property Finance, Business Banking , ANZ

Colin Robinson has in excess of 20 years experience in a variety of corporate finance and business banking roles. He joined ANZ Bank in September 2007 to re-engineer the Business Banking Property proposition and lead a team of Property Specialists in driving new commercial property lending for Business Bank.

David Cresp, Director, Office Leasing,
Colliers International

David Cresp has 15 years of experience in looking at the outlook for the Perth CBD office market and has provided advice to many of Perth's CBD property owners and developers. David is now focusing on using this knowledge to work with property owners and tenants through heading up Colliers International's office leasing team in Perth. David will provide an overview of the Perth office market.
