South West Development: Framework for the future

Friday 13th November

4PM – 6PM

The Goose

Geographe Bay Rd Busselton Western Australia
Refreshments and networking to follow forum

Home to world class wineries, old growth forests, pristine beaches and a favourite tourism destination, WA's South West has a little bit of everything. However areas in the South West have steadily been making the transition from quiet coastal towns to highly developed regional cities.

This forum will discuss the frameworks being put in place for the region by Government for future development.

You will hear from a variety of expert speakers what is being planned to accommodate the expected development to the area, as well as possible planning issues and infrastructure requirements.

SPEAKERS:

Don Punch CEO, South West Development Commission

Paul Needham Manager Strategic Planning, Shire of Busselton

Paul Martin Manager, Economic Development, Shire of Busselton

Martin Richards Principal, Impact Urban Designs
